WASHINGTON, Dec. 5 .-- It is not to be concealed that a good many members of congress are looking with a good deal of solemnity upon the appropriation for pensions that is asked for the fiscal year which begins on the 1st of next July. Even these who feel the kindest to the old soldiers are growing serious at the contemplation of appropriating $135, after 10 o'clock last night. Fortunately 000,000 in one year-not because they are disposed to be finicky, but because those who do not receive pensions are showing signs of restiveness. And $185,000,000 is not the limit, either, for the special lills are ponring in and pension and the prisoner of war pension-which will add, it is estimated, to all and have made it the most over $60,000,000 a year to the sum now required to carry out the laws now in were worth fully $10,000.

One of the keys is held by the deposit company and the other by the party renting the box, and neither can open the lock unless the other is present.

The first case was that of Mrs. Joshua Simon, who, on returning from visiting friends in Chicago, was attacked by the dreaded disease. Her children, who were attending the public school, have been exposed, and fears are entertained that smallpox will spread throughout the town, which contains about 2,000 inhabitants. The President Receives a Le.ter from the Indians.

THEY CLAIM TO BE STARVING

Hollow Horn Bear Wants to Take a Trip to Washington at the Government's Expense-Acting Indian Commissioner Belt Makes a Statement to Secrelary Noble-Lulesi from the Frontier. .

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—The following memorial, signed by 102 Stoux Indians. received by the president, has been referred to the acting commissioner of Indian affairs;

ROSEBUD AGENCY, Nov 6, 18#0 GREAT FATHER-This day I will write you a letter with a good heart. When we gave up the Black Hills, you told us in that treaty that a man would get three pounds of beef a day; the meaning was three pounds for one man. Besides you said we could get food just like the sol-ulers. You did not, however, give it to us at this rate.

Great father, we are starving, and beg you therefore to give to us just so, as you have promised. Thirty men of us get for eighteen days only one cow to eat; that is the reason I mention it. And if you do not well understand it, send me, Hollow Horn Bear, travelling money, and I will come with five men.

Great father, if you do not want to do so, then please let us have a soldier for our father agent, when our present father's term is out.

Great father, please do us this favor. In reply to this memorial Acting Commissioner Belt in a letter to Secretary Noble says that the law does not promise the Indians "food just like soldiers," but only a ration of beef, flour, bacon, coffee, sugar and beans, or such other articles in lien thereof as the commissioner of Indian affairs may decide.

In reply to the charges that the Indians signed an agreement that rations would not be reduced and that the supply was reduced 2,000,000 pounds and that those signing the agreement felt imposed upon, Mr. Belt says: "The Indians received rations to the full amount warranted by the appropriations made by congress.

In regard to the complaint made by Gen. Lrooke that the Indians did not get the additional supply of beef. Mr. Belt says that in view of the fact that owing to the drouth of last summer and the scarcity of grazing in the reservation, the cattle delivered under contracts in October last will no doubt shrink considerably during the coming winter, when severe weather prevails and the range grazing is difficult and scarce.

A tabulated statement accompanies the letter showing the amount of sup plies furnished the several agencies, and it is stated that in addition to these supfore contracts were executed and approved, the following sums, viz.: For Pine Ridge agency, $28,500; for Rosebud agency, $31,200, and for Standing Rock agency, $21,000.

A Hopeful Outlook.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.- Gen. Schofield yesterday afternoon received a dispatch from Gen. Brooke, stating that forty lodges of Indians have left the Rosebud camp since they moved across the White river to the edge of the "Bad Lands." There are, he says, strong signs of disintegration among the Indians in camp, they being about evenly divided as to whether they shall return to the agency or not. From all that Gen Brooke can learn about their desires, he says that he is convinced that n majority of them want to come in.

War department officials are much gratified with Gen. Brooke's dispatch, and now look for a speedy settlement of the Indian troubles.

General Miles Talks.

CHICAGO, Dec. 5.—Regarding the Indian situation Gen. Miles said: "I do not think any engagement will occur immediately, but an outbreak may occur at any time. I am taking every precaution to prevent one. I shall go to the northwest in a day or two and give general directions, but not necessarily to take the field in person.

SITTING BULL'S CAPTURE

About to Be Made When the President is Heard From.

LA CROSSE, Wis., Dec. 5.—Dr. Frank Powell returned to his home in this city Wednesday from Standing Rock Agency, N. Dak., accompanied by William F. Cody (Buffalo Bill), and R. H. Haslam, (Pony Bob). Col. Cody stated that his party was in the heart of the Indian country, seventeen miles from the camp of Sitting Bull, where the ghost dance was in progress.

"Our mission was to capture Sitting Bull," said Col. Cody, "and we would have accomplished our object had not a conrier overtaken us on the edge of the reservation with dispatches from the president ordering our party to return without carrying Gen. Miles' orders into effect. Our trip was not attended with any dangers. We were sent there not on a mission of assassination, but capture.
"The trouble as it is now is unprecedented. Our party traveled 1,506 miles in less than seven days, and our surprise was great in being recalled from our mission. We could have taken the bull, horse and all into captivity, I am sure, without the loss of a single life. It is impossible for me to fell at this time whether this aprising will result in the destruction of thousands of lives and homes are in n peaceable settlement. TWO KILLED, SIX HURT.

Chleago and Alton Pussenger Train Wrecked in Illinois.

St. Louis, Dec. 5.—The Chicago and Alton through Kansas City express, called the "Hummer," which left Chicago last night, was run into by a Wabash coal train at 2 o'clock at Jacksonville, Ill.

Two passengers were instantly killed and six others seriously hurt, some of whom may die. The Chicago and Alton express had stopped on the crossing to take on passengers, when the neavy treight coming from the south, and which was, according to the statement of the Wabash officials unmanageable, came thundering along and crashed into the rear sleeper, splitting it entirely in two pieces.

The engine rushed through the sleeping car, throwing the sleeping passengers, dead and wounded, to the right and left, piling cars of coal in a large mass upon the demolished passenger

A few minutes afterward a headless body was found sticking out of the rnins, and taken out. A little while afterward the head was found and placed be ide the trunk. The body was identified as that of James Riffe, of Fountain Place, Ill., who boarded the train at Delavan.

The next body recovered was that of Fred. Smith, a merchant of Pekin, Ill. His body was badly crushed.

Six other passengers were taken from the wreck with broken limbs and internal injuries.

General Manager Hayes, of the Wabash, is of the opinion that the Chicago and Alton train did not stop on the crossing, but backed ento the crossing to get a start, and by so doing got in the way of the freight.

Terrible Accident at a Joliet, Illinois, Blast Furnace.

JOLIET, Ill., Dec. 5.-A terrible accident, with loss of life, occurred at the blast furnace department of the Illinois Iron and Steel company's works yesterday. The tlast furnace, which was blown out for relining and repairs, made necessary since the recent explosion, which was also attended with loss of life, fell to the ground yesterday, when about twenty men were engaged at work on it. Eleven men were at work in the inside at the bottom, and six on

The work of rescuing the victims was begun at once, but it was not until late in the afternoon that the bodies were all recovered. Seven bodies were removed, mutilated beyond a semblance

As the war ship passed up the harbor many ships dipped their flags. Gen. He would remain in California for five or six weeks and would not go east. Before Kalakna left Honolulu he issued a proclamation providing for the control of the nation during his absence, in which he appointed his sister, Princess Lilinokalant regent.

Here is an excellent school house, light and cheerful, nlcely painted outside and well furnished inside. The trustees are J. J. Dickson, Jas. C. Thomas and Benj. Reeder. These trustees are active and faithful in looking after the welfare of the school. The teacher is Miss Amy Goddard, and a good one. She is full of enthusiasm, bright, cheerful, ready and infuses the same spirit into her pupils. She seems to find no difficulty in controlling and managing this large school, containing forty-nine scholars. We heard classes in written and oral arithmetic, speiling and other studies, all of which showed excellent training. A very bright class recited in primary geography, in primary history of the U.S. and other studies. A recitition in grammar upon improvised questions was excellent. A little glrl, Georgle May Roe, gave a recltation which was exceedingly well done. The spirit and life which Miss Goddard Infuses into her scholars is productive of good results, and greatly brightens the echool. We were hospitably entertained by Captain Champ Farrow, one of nature's noblemen, who almost everybody knows, and those who do not, would do well to make his acquaintance speedily.

MOVEMENT ALREADY BEGUN.

A Convention to Be Held in Cincinnuti Next February to Take Further Action. Transactions of the Meeting Now Being Held in Ocala, Florida.

OCALA, Fla., Dec. 5.—The National Alliance met at 10:80 yesterday and the first hour was devoted to a discussion of inside topics. A. Gallaher, fraternal delegate from the Workingmen's Reform League, of New York city, and W. H. Carsey, of Washin ton, D. C., from the American anti-Monopoly League, then addressed the convention. each speaking for half an hour. Their remarks were principally directed in favor of a closer bond between all National organizations of this character, but against consolidation. They also advised the National Alliance to stand by its St. Louis platferm, to take the lead in any National political move ment which might grow out of it, and asserted that other organizations would

At the afternoon session, Messrs. Holden, Williams and Rice, representing the Citizeus Alliance, of Kansas, made addresses which, in the main followed in the same line of thought and argument. They said that their organization was as deeply interested in the farmers' movement as was the Alliance itself. They saw no reason why merchants, truders, etc., should not unite in promoting this movement, and they asked for a committee of conference to arrange closer relations between the Citizens and Farmers' Alliances. The request was granted and a committee appointed.

Messrs. Gallagher and Carey, from the New York Workingmen's Reform League and Anti-monopoly League respectively, addressed the convention and asked that organizers be sent to New York state to form sub-Alliances there, getting the membership from among the mechanics and laborers.

Col. Livingstone replied and said that he did not regard it as fitting or politic that all classes of men should belong to the same organization. They should keep up organizations of their own, but should fraternize more closely and confer together upon measures of public policy. The masses of the country were in the same boat and should work together. "The money power of this country," he continued, "backed up by the money power of Europe is our common enemy. To nicet this enemy and to cope with it successfully, co-operation is necessary and it must come about. I therefore recommend co-operation and traternity with other National bodies but not consolidation.

A resolution was passed allowing three cents mileage each way, and a per diem of $2 to all delegates to the National meeting.

The special committee appointed to estimate the work of the convention reported the work would probably be done by Saturday at midnight. The five-minute rule on speeches was

A resolution providing for the appointment of one delegate from each state Alliance to the Asheville, N. C., investigating convention Dec. 17, was adopted. The thanks of the convention were unammously voted to President Rogers, of the Florida Alliance, for the hospitality extended to the Alliance.

A resolution providing for the government taking charge of all improvements of the Mississippi river was referred to the transportation committee.

Congressman-elect Pickler, of South Dakota, made a speech advocating the free coinage of silver. A resolution calling upon state and National legislatures to reduce the salaries of public officers to more moderate sums was referred to the committee on legislation

A number of Kansas delegates, includ-J. W. Rice, John Davis, and Delegate Vincent are working upon a call for a National convention to form a new party, the date being fixed on Feb. 2. 1891, and the place Cincinnati. Delegates from the National Farmers' Alliance, and all other National organizations in symputhy with it, or which endorse the St. Louis platform as well as the editors of the "reform press' throughout the country will be invited to take part in the convention. The new party to be formed would doubtless work on the same lines as the People's party in Kansas, that is, renounce all affiliation with the other political parties and place a National ticket of its own in the field. This call when completed will undoubtedly be presented to the National Alliance for its endorsement. Some of the men in the movement, however, are not convinced that this course will be wise or politic.

Congressman-elect Davis, of Kansas, said yesterday's afternoon call for the conference endorses the Alliance plat-form and invites all organizations in sympathy with that declaration to send delegates to Cincinnati. It has been extensively signed by Alliance members and by delegates of other organizations. When asked if the cull touched upon other measures of public policy than the St. Louis platform, Mr. Davis said it did. It lays down, he said, four propositions with reference to National reforms, viz: finance, transportation, land and labor. The call will not be presented to the National Alliance for its endorsement as a body, but will be circulated for signutures in thirty-six Alliance states, and perhaps in all the states of the union. Mr. Davis further said the convention would undoubtedly place a presidential ticket in the field in 1892 The call he said would soon be published. The members of the Alliance press committee could not be found until late in the afternoon and then they were utterly ignorant of the transactions of the convention. The correspondents in attendance on the convention united in a letter to President Polk, complaining of the negligence of the press committee and asking him to use his influence to better the facilities for obtaining the doings of the convention. The president referred to this communication in the convention and urged on the press committee the importance of attending | 1892.

to its duties. Subsequently all the correspondents in the city met and appointed a committee of three to wait on President Polk and ask him to define his policy with reference to conveying information to the press. He promised to have the official stenographer of the convention confer with the chairman of the press committee at frequent intervals during the day and night and give out promptly all information relating to matters of public interest.

TERRIBLE AFFLICTION.

The Muscles of a Lady's Legs Contract So

Viciently as to Break the Limbs. Paris. Ky., Dec. 5.—Wednesday morning about 10 o'clock as Mrs. J. Harry Brent, wife of Hon. J. The terrible agony of the poor sufferer was pitiful to behold. Nearly erazed with grief and excitement, the children hu riedly summoned a physician, who responded immediately, but ali of his skill was une mal to the ravages of the terrible maindy.

While attending the fractured limb, the left member also contracted, brenking the left thigh. The pain was so terrlbly agonizing it seemed for hours that lockjaw would set in and put an end to the suffering by death. The unfortunate lady is now "at death's door," and but little hope of her recovery is enter-tained. Mrs. Brent is one of the most popular ladies in Paris.
